TOM DIXON

Grand Designs

A multi-faceted and multi-tier store on Hollywood Road is British interior designer Tom Dixon's first East Asian showroom, displaying his latest furnishings, lighting and home accessories. The man himself flew in for the grand unveiling, joining design enthusiasts and industry figures who gathered to marvel at his creations. In spite of a full day's media activities and the inevitable jet lag, Dixon coped tirelessly with the endless requests for selfies – the price of fame today.
